

LESSON #348: JASON MARION

NO PLAY-ALONG TRACK TODAY. GOOGLE OUR GUEST'S PERFORMANCES

BIO

I am a singer/songwriter by day, dueling piano player at night. I have had an extraordinary year working on three Christian albums called "The Grace Trilogy" that will consist of Waiting for Grace, Welcoming Grace, and Warriors of Grace. This transition from secular music has fulfilled me spiritually in a way that my previous albums did not. I am humbled and excited at the response I've gotten. My newest single "Appleday," a collaboration with Bradley Clark, has been played by 22 radio stations across the world from Arcata, California to Hartford, Vermont; from Edmonton, Canada to Queensland, Australia! You can listen to

Appleday here: www.crradiopromotions.com I have also been nominated for two IMEA (International Music and Entertainment Association) awards: Christian/Gospel Artist of the year, and Christian/Gospel song of the year for "Appleday."

(Y)OUR QUESTIONS

- |   |  |   |
|---|--|---|
| *What's the difference between performing as a Christian musician versus secular? | you had that you abandoned?  | *Do you have any favorite podcasts?   |
| *How did you get to where you are?  | *Overall, do you feel YouTube has made musicians better or worse?      | *What is the most impactful $100 or less you've spent recently?              |
| *What's your most profitable gig?   | *What's the difference between a musical hobbyist and a real musician? | *What famous or semi-famous person would best fit your definition of success? |
| *What's your favorite thing to do musically?                                      | *What is your perspective on recent copyright laws & piracy issues?    | *What movie or movies can you most readily quote from?                        |
| *When did you start playing?  | *What are the most important 3 albums to own?                          |   |
| *What are some other great hobbies  |  |   |

SHOW NOTES & LINKS

<http://www.jasonmarion.com/>

<http://www.duelingpianoshow.com/>

<http://www.TheMizeGroup.com/>

